NOTES

1. Have you ever wrestled with the question, "Which aspects of my faith are cultural and which are truly foundational?" We will be examining and discussing case studies on the encounter between Christianity and culture. Our hope is to shed insight on the relationship between our faith and our culture.

2. PSF Theological Discussion Group meets every Tuesday evening for one hour. This student run group was formed to give interested students the opportunity to discuss significant theological issues that pertain to their development as Christians and as ministers. Approximately 40 minutes of discussion and prayer will follow a brief presentation by a faculty member or student.

3. Do you need help and ideas for working with your youth group(s)? Here is your chance to see what the Reigner Reading Room has to offer! A display will be set up on Thursday consisting of multi-media materials, pamphlets, games, books, periodicals, and lots of ideas available for your perusal. A Christian education staff person will be on hand to talk with you about the materials.

4. All students and staff interested in peace issues are welcome to join the Plowshare discussion each Thursday in the Alumni Room. Bring your lunch tray with you.

5. Princeton Seminary Women (formerly the Women's and Wives' Faculty Administration Group). "Come and greet your colleagues and friends and meet 'The new kids on the block.'" Snacks for children too.

Lois Thomas

6. What is BPU???? To find out attend the lecture and discussion given by the Reverend Claude Kilgore, BPU National President.

NOTICES

SEMINARY DEACONS: The first meeting of the Deacons of the Seminary was held in the Campus Center Auditorium on October 8. An Executive Committee was elected composed of Virginia Miner, M.Div.Middler, Brown Hall, Moderator; Scott Hookey, M.Div.Middler, Erdman Hall, Secretary; Cindy Olson, M.Div.Middler, Tennent, North-South Halls; Kathy Metcalf, student spouse, CRW; and Jeffrey Brinks, M.Div. Middler, Hodge Hall.

The next Deacons' meeting is scheduled for Thursday, November 19, 7:30 p.m. in the Campus Center Auditorium. The posted time change from 7:00 p.m. to 7:30 is necessary because of the Thanksgiving Dinner in the cafeteria.

CROSS CULTURE MISSIONS GROUP: Dave Hicks, co-director of Operation Mobilization, will speak with the Cross Culture Missions Group on Monday, October 19. Bring a lunch and join us. If you are interested in having dinner with a member of the Operation Mobilization Staff, please contact Jill Hartwell, (683-0414).

Urbana is the name of a five day student missions conference which will take place in Urbana, Illinois, December 27-January 1. The Cross Culture Missions Group will sponsor a film that will give you a flavor of the conference on Tuesday, October 20, 7:00 p.m. in the auditorium. People who have attended the conference before will be on hand to answer questions.

Jill Hartwell

PSF THEOLOGICAL DISCUSSION GROUP: Is the New Testament primarily a collection of stories depicting the early church's developing theology? Or is it primarily accounts of the spiritual pilgrimmages of great early church leaders? Or is it to be regarded as an historical document carefully focusing on the actual person, work, and teaching of Jesus? Or is it somehow entirely the word given directly by God? Mike Holmes, Ph.D. candidate under Dr. Metzger, will be addressing the issues raised by these questions as we discuss, "Biblical Criticism: Where Do You Start?"

BIBLICAL STUDIES EXAMS and PAPERS: Spring 1981 papers and exams for NT and OT courses should be picked up from the Office of Professional Studies (Room 113, Hodge Hall) before 4:30 p.m., October 23. Papers remaining will be discarded.

LOCATOR CARDS: Now that Drop/Add period is over and your schedule is firm, how about returning a completed white locator card to the Office of Professional Studies (Room 113, Hodge Hall)? We have plenty of extra cards if yours has gone astray. Five minutes of your time now could save hours of delay in the event of a family emergency later. PAT YOURSELF ON THE BACK if you have already returned a locator card, but if you haven't, you may be one of the 14 students sought but not found last week for lack of a card.

Susan J. Pope

PLOWSHARE: What unique concerns do Vietnam veterans bring into a congregational setting? Judy Dean and Lindsey Arnold will draw from their own experiences to lead the Plowshare discussion on this topic 7 p.m. Thursday, October 22.

J. Nelson Kraybill

CAMPUS MINISTRY: We are interested in forming a group to talk of the nature and direction of campus work and future prospects. Those currently involved in some form of campus ministry, or those interested in pursuing a university or campus position upon graduation, contact Scott Matheney, 206 Brown, or call (683-1553).

GOSPEL LIGHT SPEAKER: The Reverend Rodney G. Toews, vice-president of ministries for Gospel Light publications, will meet with interested students on Tuesday, October 20 at 12:30 - 2 p.m. He will discuss the various ministries that Gospel Light is presently conducting. If you are interested in Christian education and would like to learn more about the materials that Gospel Light publishes and be more informed about its ministries, we urge you to attend. Luncheon will be served in the Private Dining Room. You must sign up by Friday, October 16. Contact David Wall in the Christian Education office or call 921-8252.

HUNGER TASK FORCE: October 16 is World Food Day, as proclaimed by the United Nations last month. In honoring this day, the T.B.A. will have a special display of books on hunger. You can also start to sign up for the "Period of Fasting," to be held November 3, in the Campus Center. You may sign up for this fast at the table in the Campus Center. Take time out and reflect upon the need of those who hunger.

Brett Mitchell

LANGUAGE INTEREST: Anyone interested in speaking a foreign language over lunch one day a week? The Cross Culture Missions Group is helping members of the Seminary community to organize language tables.

French and German tables have already started meeting. We are anxious to begin a Spanish table and maybe a Swahili one. For information contact Jill Hartwell (683-0414) or Steve Strickler (683-1292).

REIGNER READING ROOM: Currently on display at the Reigner Reading Room is an assortment of media on the topic, "Human Sexuality," relating to youth, values, role development, marriage, homosexuality, curriculum for use with youth, and the church's role in education.

R. Kuyper

CAR MAINTENANCE: Tired of operating your car on faith alone? Instruction on the maintenance and basic repair of cars will be available soon. If you are interested, please sign up at 201 Hodge, or contact me at 683-1467.

TABLE OF THE WEEK: A weekly dinner event begins Wednesday, October 21, in the dining room. A selected international student will tell of his/her country and entertain questions in an informal around-the dinner-table setting. Location of the table will be announced at dinner. For information call Steve Strickler, co-ordinator of the Cross Culture Missions Group, at 683-1292.

STUDENT POSITION VACANCY: Due to internship of the person appointed, the position of Recreation Chairperson is available. This person will work with the Student Government and student body to expand non-competitive physical/recreation opportunities on main campus and CRW complex.

This is a paid position averaging 10 hours per week. Those interested should see Mr. Getty prior to deadline for applications, October 23.

Alex Getty

NOTICES

CLASSES RESUME THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29th, 8:00 A.M.

LECTURE ON BONHOEFFER: Dr. Eberhard Bethge will speak on the "Life and Thought of Dietrich Bonhoeffer" in the context of ER16, The Theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer. Dr. Bethge is Director Emeritus of the Center of Continuing Pastoral Education of the Church of the Rhineland. He is the author of the definitive biography of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, the editor of Bonhoeffer's writings and the friend to whom most of Bonhoeffer's Letters from Prison were addressed. His wife, Renate Bethge, Bonhoeffer's niece, will also attend. Monday, November 2, Stuart Hall. 10-11:50 a.m.

BPU DAY: In preparation of the 175th anniversary of the oldest Black Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., the Association of Black Seminarians calls on all to join together in the celebration of the first "Black Presbyterians United Day" at PTS. This day commemorates pluralism in the denomination. The panel discussion scheduled for 1 p.m., in the Main Lounge, will feature Mrs. Emily Gibbs, New York Theological Seminary, The Reverend Claude Kilgore, National President, Black Seminarians United, and The Reverend Gilbert McKenzie, Witherspoon Presbyterian Church, and others.

TBA HIGHLIGHTS BLACK STUDIES: The TBA supports"Black Presbyterians United Day" with a special display of titles on black issues, and, beginning at 2:30, an additional 5% off all titles in our Black Studies section. All students are invited to come by after the panel discussion. The TBA salutes Black Presbyterians United!

RICHARD FARMER SCHEDULE: Richard Farmer will be the celebrant at chapel, Friday, November 6th. He graduated in 1980 with a Master of Divinity from Princeton.

There will be an evening program at 7:30 p.m., in Miller Chapel, entitled, "Richard Allen Farmer in Concert," on the same day.

Workshops are scheduled for Saturday, November 7th, and will be held in Miller Chapel.

Workshop -- "Beyond the Hymnal." 9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

Workshop -- "The Music of the City: Patterns and Trends." 1:30 - 3:30 p.m.

The whole event continues under the title, "Christian Outreach through Music."

The workshops will include emphasis on methods of outreach (morning) and current trends (afternoon) with taped illustrations of several Christian musicians who are reaching out to Black and Hispanic populations in our cities. They will have strong appeal to all who seek to minister to youth and to the needs of the city, as well as to those who are interested in the role of music in Christian ministry.

New this fall: Letty N, Russell, Growth in Partnership, More New Games; Peter L. Berger, The Other Side of God; David Tracy, The Analogical Imagination; John and Charles Wesley, Selected Writings and Hymns, (Classics of Western Spirituality series.)

Special reminders: Regular hours will continue during reading period and exams.

The TBA is open until 7 p.m. every Monday.

PSF:

PSF Theological Discussion Group will not be meeting during the reading period, but will resume the following Tuesday evening, November 3rd, to discuss "Prayer: What's the Use?"

VIEWPOINT:

Viewpoint has an editor and a publication schedule. Frustrated writers and would-be Hemingways may submit short stories, poems, essays, and bribes to 108 Brown (either under the door to the room or in the mailbox located just a few steps away). The next deadline is Friday, 30 October at 5 p.m. The editor, normally a patient man, will be glad to go over requirements for publication at his convenience. Remember: "De gustibus non disputandum est!"

Joseph Cejka

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK DEGREE:

The annual M.S.W. Information Night will take place within the next few weeks. Please watch for the scheduled time.

Students presently in the program, those who will begin next summer and all students in the Seminary who are interested in applying for the program are invited to attend.

CROSS CULTURE MISSIONS:

The Group's speaker will be Greer Imbrie, '82. Mr. Imbrie worked for four years with the Peace Corps in Thailand. When the refugee crisis became so evident in 1979, he returned to Thailand to work in the refugee camps with the International Refugee Association. Join us as he challenges us to consider some of the religious and secular implications of what is happening in those refugee camps. November 2, Auditorium, 12:30.

PSF THEOLOGICAL DISCUSSION GROUP:

Does it make any difference whether or not we pray, if God is sovereign? Who can change God's mind? Are not people who say they have received "answers to prayer" really a bit misguided? Prayer is talked about a lot in the Bible and it has always been around in the Church, but would it better be understood as a way for us to think through our own problems better? Chris Jenkins, M.Div., Senior, will address this puzzling paradox, as we discuss the issue, "Why Bother to Pray?" November 3, Alumni Room, 6 p.m.

Tim Geoffrion

ANTHONY CAMPOLO ON "BIBLICAL PERSONHOOD:"

Anthony Campolo's address to the Princeton Seminary community will explore the contrast between American sexual role expectations and the model of complete humanness personified in Jesus Christ. Dr. Campolo is a nationally known lecturer and conference speaker, and is the Chairman of the Department of Sociology, Eastern College, Saint Davids, Pennsylvania. A Baptist minister and former Vice President of the American Baptist Convention, Dr. Campolo has also been active in the development of university and medical educational institutions in the Dominican Republic.

WORLD COMMUNITY DAY:

Friday, November 6, 1981: an important date for all women of the church -- the annual celebration of World Community Day under the leadership of Church Women United.

Place: Princeton Peace Lutheran Church on the Princeton-Hightstown Road

Time: 11:30 a.m. Bring a sandwich; beverage and dessert will be provided.

Theme: World Peace
Meditation by Margot Pickett, Co-Pastor of Christ Congregation

World Community Day was first celebrated during World War II when a call for prayer for peace was issued. Each year this commitment to peace is renewed as we strive for a global community established in our hope for universal freedom, equality, and social justice.

Come join with women from all the area churches to share your belief in these ideals and goals.

TRAFFIC LIGHT OPERATING:

The State of New Jersey has now authorized placing the traffic light at the Mercer Street crossing in operation. The light is to assist pedestrians in crossing Mercer Street and can be activated only by pressing the button located on the post by each ramp. When the light has been activated and has turned red, the "Walk" indicator will be turned on. At that time, pedestrians should proceed across the crossing.

People exiting from the campus driveway onto Mercer Street must use caution at all times and observe all traffic regulations that apply when a vehicle exits from a private driveway. Be especially careful in making a left turn when the signal reads "Walk" for the pedestrian crossing.

PSF THEOLOGICAL DISCUSSION GROUP:

When we talk about knowing and communicating "God's Truth" is it something that springs from our personal experience, the bible, the traditions of the Church, the present community of faith, the current academic community and trends? Historically, church leadership has been characterized by everything from individualistic mystics to rationalist scholastics. In spite of all we have come to 'know' today, the tension remains between those who maintain that their Christianity is built and sustained by "faith" and those who regard "reason" and logical methods of analysis as the primary means of ascertaining the truth about Christianity. Join us Tuesday, November 10th in the Alumni Room, at 6 p.m. as Dr. Karl Froehlich leads us in a discussion on "Christianity: The Tension between Faith and Reason."

PSF THEOLOGICAL DISCUSSION GROUP:

In a seminary community of 900 students plus faculty and staff, we are confronted with some 900 plus understandings of who God is and what he expects from us. Even the most learned, mystical, or experienced among us are still subject to human limitations. Is not then, the final analysis, knowledge of God subjective and obscure at best? Perhaps God would be better conceived of as a force which moves within us and within the world than someone or something to be known! Is another conclusion possible? Augustine seemed to think so....Join us as we hear and discuss Willard (Jody) Dickerson's presentation of "Augustine: On Knowing God." November 17, Alumni Room. 6 p.m.

APPEAL TO THE SEMINARY COMMUNITY: Ernest and Mabel Katahweire, two 1981 PTS graduates, have returned to Uganda where they are teaching at Bishop Tucker Theological College. In the process of moving, all of their theological books were stolen. "To make matters worse," they write, "both of us, in our various fields, are the only ones doing them. So, there is no question of borrowing from a colleague. We are really stuck." If you have extra books in the fields of Pastoral Theology or Christian Education which you could donate or sell cheaply to Ernest and Mabel, please contact Mary Johnson at 921-6456, or by campus mail.

SENIOR STUDENT POSITION: 1982 Spring-Fall Headwaiter: Senior student position in Food Services. Coordinates and supervises student employment for the Dining Hall. Must be available for full spring and fall semesters (15 hours/wk), Alumni Commencement period and orientation period.

Letters of application should be submitted through Mr. Getty, Financial Aid Office, not later than December 7, 1981.

If you are interested in selling your wares, please contact Lynette Cram, 924-9165, or Alexandra Whitelock, 924-2343. The Christmas Creativity Sale will take place in the Campus Center, 12-1:30 p.m., December 7 & 8.

BLOODMOBILE REPORT: On behalf of all the Seminary community I wish to thank those who donated blood Wednesday, November 18, when the bloodmobile visited our campus. I also thank those who donate at the Princeton Medical Center during the year because this is an integral part of the program. With the Continued cooperation of those who donate at the Medical Center, our yearly quota should be complete. There were 167 pints of blood donated Wednesday which represent 101 donors from the Seminary community and 66 pints from local businesses or organizations who do not have facilities for a bloodmobile. All donors should have a deep feeling of satisfaction knowing that you have helped someone in need, whether or not it be within the Seminary community.

NOTICES

TO ALL STUDENTS:

Please make note of the following changes in the course offerings for spring, 1982:

NT33, Section B will be taught on Thursday from 1:20 to 3:10 p.m. and not from 3:20 to 5:10 p.m. as listed in the Summary Schedule of classes.

CH42, Crises of Disestablishment will not be taught. CH45, Totalitarianism and the Churches, will be taught by Dr. James H. Nichols on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday, at 1:20 p.m.

Sue Oelke
Office of the Registrar

WESTMINSTER SHORTER CATECHISM:

The Annual Examination on the Westminster Shorter Catechism will be held on Monday, December 7, at 7:00 p.m. in the Homiletics Seminar Room in the Basement of the Chapel.

By the generosity and vision of a Presbyterian layman, Mr. Samuel Robinson, a considerable sum of money has been donated to Princeton Theological Seminary to stimulate interest in the Westminster Shorter Catechism. Believing, upon the ground of his personal experience, that there is no single statement of Christian doctrine more admirably suited than the Westminster Shorter Catechism to challenge the thought of young people upon the basic truths of the Christian religion, the donor has founded a number of prizes and a fellowship.

For the year 1981-1982 up to thirty-three prizes of $150.00 each will be awarded, for which Juniors, Middlers, Seniors, and Graduate Students may try, provided they have not previously received a Samuel Robinson Prize.

Donald Macleod, ext. 247

CHRISTMAS OPEN HOUSE:

The staff of the Office of Professional Studies and the Registrar cordially invites all members of the Seminary community, students, staff, and faculty, to our second annual gala Christmas Open House, to be held from 2:00 p.m. Thursday, December 10, in room 110-113 Hodge Hall. Please join us for this festive gathering.

Sue Oelke

SENIOR CLASS ELECTIONS:

At the Senior Class meeting held on November 16th, it was decided to elect three persons to serve as representatives for the class. Persons interested nominated themselves, registering in the Placement Office. Names have been posted and elections will be held Monday, December 14th, in the Campus Center.

IMPACT:

Do you want to know what your church is doing to influence legislation and public policy in the United States today? IMPACT is the name for a whole series of publications from the Washington offices of major denominations and the National Council of Churches, informing you on public issues, the churchs' action with regard to them, and what you can do to help. Here is the best single source for relating to the church at work in national affairs. Copies of recent issues of IMPACT are in my office, room 128, Administration Building. Should you or your church wish to subscribe, the address is 100 Maryland Avenue NE, Washington, DC 20002.

Sally Jones

PSF THEOLOGICAL DISCUSSION GROUP:

We, in America, have many "blessings" to count; or do we? That is, how do we differentiate between receiving "blessings" from God and possessing many things just because our "materialistic" nation is currently powerful and "on top?" And do we have what we have because God has given it to us, or because "having things" is such a powerful value to us that we have (perhaps unwittingly) built our lives around getting them? What should be our response to our abundance when we are made aware of the poverty and deprivation throughout the world? Join us as Julia Wheeler and Gordon Fraizer will be facilitating our discussion of "Blessings in an Age of Need."

Tim Geoffrion

CROSS CULTURE MISSIONS GROUP:

The Cross Culture Missions Group and its friends have the outstanding opportunity to hear an address by Bishop Lesslie Newbigin, world-renowned churchman and author. Bishop Newbigin serves in the unique ecumenical Church of South India. Plan to join us.

URBAN MISSION ALLIANCE:

THANK YOU!
The emergency food drive was a great success. We were able to supply Forum Project and Mount Carmel Guild with two weeks' worth of dry goods and can goods. This year's gift was three times the giving from last year. We gave well over $600.00 worth.

Forum Project and Mount Carmel Guild serve about 100 families a month on an emergency basis. They try to give enough food for three days so a consistent supply is needed.

We thank you for your time, gifts and offerings.

Peace,

MORGAN ART EXHIBIT:

From December 13-24, artist Maritza Morgan will show a Christmas exhibit of her paintings at the Central Presbyterian Church, Park Avenue and 64th Street, New York City. Included in the exhibit will be eight seven-foot paintings on Psalm 148 hanging from pillars in the Sanctuary. A painter with a fresh approach to religious art, Mrs. Morgan works with vivid colors and bold design on wooden triptychs and free standing screens. A collector has commented that "Maritza Morgan's cosmos is comprised of holy laughter as well as holy tears held in exquisite tension." Members of the Seminary community are invited to view the exhibit. The hours are from 10-6 daily.

NOTICES

EXTENDED CHAPEL TUESDAY DECEMBER 15:

Henry Van Dyke's The Other Wise Man will be presented as a dramatic reading in Miller Chapel.

Written in 1895, The Other Wise Man is the story of a fourth wise man, Artaban the Magian, whose life is devoted to searching for the Christ. Its author, Henry Van Dyke, was a famed clergyman and Professor of Literature at Princeton University and an alumnus of Princeton Theological Seminary (1877).

Presenting the reading will be Mary Baard, Rob Langworthy, Kim Macdonald, Brett Mitchell, Cindy Olson, Tim Solomon, Steven Strickler and Sally Greene Watkins. The production is directed by Dr. Robert Jacks. James H. Litton will be the organist.

Dr. Robert Jacks

SPECIAL SCHEDULE:

In order to accommodate the above presentation, the following schedule will be followed for Tuesday, December 15.

8 o'clock and 9 o'clock classes will meet as usual.
Chapel: 10:00 - 10:50 a.m.
3rd period: 10:55 - 11:45 a.m.
4th period: 11:50 - 12:40 p.m.

Judy Lang

CHRISTMAS ORGAN RECITAL:

The assistant organists of the Seminary will gather to present a group recital, Monday, December 14, at 10:00 p.m., in Miller Chapel. This is the first such recital by the six organists who serve as assistants to James Litton, Director of Music for the Seminary.

Selections have been drawn from the organ repertoire of seventeenth-century France, on one end of the historical spectrum, to contemporary renditions of traditional carols at the other end. Noel by Charpentier will be played by David Perkins. The Magnificat on the Eighth Tone by Jehan Titelouse will be played by Elsa Swift. Lesley Davies completes the French section of the program with Noel Suisse by D'Aquin. Kathryn Nichols and Steve Hamilton will present works of Johann Sebastian Bach: the Prelude and Fugue in G. Major, and the Advent Chorale prelude on Nun Komm der Heiden Heiland. Carol arrangements complete the program. Greensleeves, by Richard Purvis, is one of Donald Degenhardt's offerings along with Chapman's arrangement of Bring a Torch, Jeannette Isabella. Lesley Davies will lead the audience in Silent Night as well as play Samuel Barber's Chorale Prelude on Silent Night.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT:

The Seminary Chapel Choir will give a Christmas Concert at 8:00 p.m., Wednesday, December 16, in Miller Chapel. The program will feature Vivaldi's setting of the Magnificat for choir, soloists and orchestra and the carol fantasy, "Christmas Day" by Gustav Holst. The program will also include other sacred and secular carol arrangements sung by the Chapel Choir, the Seminary Madrigal Singers, and by the congregation. David Perkins will direct the Seminary Madrigal Singers. Following the concert there will be a community carol sing of familiar carols on the steps of Miller Chapel.

THANKS FOR BOOK SALE PROCEEDS:

The proceeds from the Fifth Annual Stewardship Book Sale were divided to support the libraries of Nanking Theological College in China and Tainan Theological College in Taiwan. K. H. Ting of Nanking Union Theological Seminary sent the following letter to Princeton Seminary Vice President, William H. Felmeth.

> Now that I have come back to Nanking I must hurry to write you to acknowledge the receipt of your kind letter of September 24 to Nanking and the cheque of US $1,000 which is for books for our seminary and which reached me care of Dr. Raymond Whitehead of Toronto, Ont., Canada.
>
> While in Canada and the States we have chosen a number of books useful for theological education. They are being dispatched to us by the SCM Book Room of Toronto.
>
> Please convey on our behalf our gratitude to the students of Princeton Seminary and all others concerned for this very thoughtful gift.
>
> As you may know we are just restarting the work of the seminary and are only having our first year class of 51 students. We will gladly send you some pictures when we have taken them. As to our library we lost a lot of our books during the upheavals of the cultural revolution and are now doing our best to build it anew.
> We appreciate your prayers for God's gracious blessing upon us and our work.

Tainan's President, Ching-ten Hsiao, also thanked "the God-loving people at Princeton Theological Seminary on behalf of our College" and promised, "Whenever we use the money to purchase books for our College, we will notify you to that effect. Again, thank you so much."

ANSEL ADAMS PHOTOGRAPHER:

A film on Adams' life as musician and photographer, his philosophy and technique, his record of the American environment, and his work for its preservation will be shown Thursday, December 17, in Room A, Education Building at 7:20 p.m. This film was originally shown on PBS. All members of the Seminary Community are invited.

UNITED WAY: The United Way thanks Princeton Seminary for contributions totalling $2,993.00. This figure is up $1,096.00 over last year's amount. Dan Thomas, Seminary Secretary, was in charge of the 1981 drive.

PSF THEOLOGICAL DISCUSSION GROUP: This week has been reserved for planning by way of discussing the kinds of theological issues and problems with which we are concerned and which we would like to see discussed next semester. Anyone who has been involved to any extent thus far is encouraged to come and share his or her concerns or suggestions.

Tim Geoffrion

PLOWSHARE: Discussion topic will be "Nuclear Weapons and Peacemaking."

Neil Elliott

CROSS CULTURE MISSIONS GROUP: The Seminary community has had a most special student in its midst the past two semesters. John Qiu, citizen of the Peoples' Republic of China and resident of Shanghai, will address the status of Christians in China including the government's newest and ongoing shift in its tolerance of the church. Come to listen and question John before his approaching return home.

MORGAN ART EXHIBIT: From December 13-24, artist Maritza Morgan will show a Christmas exhibit of her paintings at the Central Presbyterian Church, Park Avenue and 64th Street, New York City. Included in the exhibit will be eight seven-foot paintings on Psalm 148 hanging from pillars in the Sanctuary. A painter with a fresh approach to religious art, Mrs. Morgan works with vivid colors and bold design on wooden triptychs and free standing screens. A collector has commented that "Maritza Morgan's cosmos is comprised of holy laughter as well as holy tears held in exquisite tension." Members of the Seminary community are invited to view the exhibit. The hours are from 10-6 daily.
